Wandering in Paris

Her streets, her boulevards, her unique perspectives.

Paris from above. Her gardens and her squares grow green, the Opera blushes, pigeons don their finest attire. The map produces a pattern from the sky giving the journey a graphic aire, while ornaments lace the city's scape.

Paris, city of light. Her intersections shine with thousands of lights, monuments are no more than jewels. Roofs are adorned with gold; they overlook velvety asphalt. Domes form like crystals amongst the cobblestones. The path becomes jewel encrusted.

Paris, grey and chic. The Seine weaves like pearls. The Eiffel tower, proud in her metallic dress, observes the sky like ribbons of cigarette smoke.

Balade à Paris

Ses rues, ses boulevards, ses perspectives uniques.

Paris vu d'en haut. Les jardins et les places verdoient, l'Opéra s'empourpre, les pigeons s'embourgeoisent. La carte, motif vu du ciel donne à la balade des airs graphiques, tandis que les ornements brouillent les cartes.

Paris ville lumière. Les grands axes brillent de mille feux, les monuments ne sont plus que joyaux. Les toits se recouvrent d'or ; ils surplombent le velouté du bitume. Les dômes se cristallisent par dessus les pavés. Le chemin devient strass.

Paris gris chic. La Seine se promène tel un collier de perles. La tour Eiffel, fière dans sa robe métallique, voit le ciel comme une cigarette qui part en fumée.
